

STATE OF TASMANIA v RILEY JASON CAUSON
COMMENTS ON PASSING SENTENCE

9 MARCH 2021
ESTCOURT J

The defendant pleaded guilty to two counts of aggravated robbery, for which he was convicted and sentenced by me on 29 November 2019 to a term of imprisonment of eighteen months, the balance of which from that date was wholly suspended for a period of two years. He was also sentenced to a Community Correction Order for a period of two years, a condition of which order was that he must, within 2 years, satisfactorily perform community service, as directed by a probation officer or supervisor, for 140 hours.

The has completed 10 of the 140 hours that he is required to complete but has persistently failed to attend upon Community Corrections as required.

Application has now been made to revoke the order.

Cause is not shown against the application.

I have reviewed the facts and circumstances surrounding the defendant's breach of my sentencing order and I am satisfied that it is appropriate to revoke the community corrections order and activate 12 months of the suspended sentence from today with parole eligibility after serving 6 months of that sentence. In setting that sentence and activating that portion of the suspended sentence I take into account the community service completed and time spent in custody as I am required to.
